Local and Personal

B. B. Porter made a business trip to Greenville this week.

T. T. Barton was among the Easley visitors here this week.

Misses Minnie Herd and Fiedie McDaniel visited in Easley Monday.

McD. Farmer, excellent farmer and citizen of route 1, was in town Monday.

J. S. Fowler, Jr., and Swain Gilmer of Anderson were here on business Monday.

Miss Hattie Earle left Saturday to take charge of the Zion school, two miles below Easley.

Magistrate Clint G. Rowland of Central was a business visitor in town last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christopher, of Greenville, visited his parents in Pickens Sunday.

W. N. Jones, agent for the Ford automobile and a prominent merchant of Easley was in town Tuesday.

Misses Inez and Mary Morris, students of Chicora college, spent the week-end in Pickens with their parents.

We received a communication from route 4 this week, but as no name was signed to it we cannot publish it.

W. H. Grant, a well-known citizen of the Murphy section, was a business visitor at the county seat Saturday.

Mrs. Ramsay came over with Dr. Ramsay from Greenville last Saturday and spent Sunday with friends in Pickens.

Miss Addie Davis, of Liberty, has returned home after a visit to the families of her uncles, Messrs. J. D. and B. L. Holder.

Up to October 26 there had been 7,827 bales of cotton ginned in Pickens county against 5,974 bales at the same time last year.

Judge J. H. Newton, who has been traveling in North Carolina for the past several months, returned to his home here Monday.

S. M. Martin, of near Clemson College, secretary of the Pickens county Sunday school convention, was a visitor in Pickens Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden have returned to their home in Calhoun, after visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bowen.

W. Ernest Freeman, formerly of Pickens, now with the Sullivan-Markley Hardware Co., of Greenville, was here on business Thursday.

Two new restaurants have recently been opened in Pickens, one by Greg T. Mauldin in the rear end of his store and one by D. F. Pace in his store.

Mrs. J. P. Dillard and daughter, Elizabeth, of Seneca, have returned to their home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Dillard's sister, Mrs. J. D. Holder.

Monday was salesday in Pickens and a large amount of land was sold. Only a small crowd was present at the sale and bidding was not lively.

Rev. B. F. Murphree was in town last week. Bro. Murphree is moderator of the Twelve Mile Association and one of the best and most prominent ministers of that body.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Folger are visiting his mother in Easley. Frank left here about two years ago for Oklahoma, where he has been since, marrying while he was out there.

We would greatly appreciate it if those subscribers whose subscriptions expire this year would renew at once. We have sent notices to all whose subscriptions expire this year.

A Halloween party was enjoyed by a goodly number of young folks at the home of Miss Ada Craig Friday night. The little folks also enjoyed a party at the home of Miss DuBose the same night.

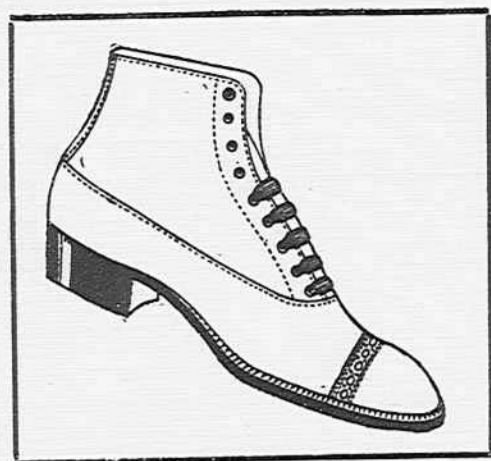

Misses Ella Hiott and Maggie Anderson, of Easley, began their school at East View, Greenville county, near Pelzer, Monday. East View is a progressive school and has one of the best rural school buildings in the state.

In the article "A Great Evil," appearing on the second page of this paper it says there are eight dispensary counties and thirty-six dry counties in this state. This is an error. There are fourteen dispensary counties in South Carolina.

I. M. Mauldin has purchased the house and lot of the late Julius Boggs, in Pickens, and has moved into it. Troupe Partridge and family, who have been occupying the house, have moved into the old McFall house on Hampton avenue.

The many friends in Pickens county of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gravelly will regret to learn of the death of their six-weeks-old daughter, Reba, which occurred October 8, at their home in Dell, Mont. Mr. Gravelly is a native of Pickens county and a brother of our popular liverman, A. C. Gravelly, but has made his home in Montana for the past four years. About two years ago he was married to Miss Arie, daughter of W. R. Price, of this county. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their loss.

There is

ONE THING

About our SHOES:

They are built up from the inside—the HIDDEN PARTS are just as good as parts that SHOW.

Whether for Men, Women or Children, our Shoes are the very best that money, brains and care can secure.

We suppose we could sell CHEAPER SHOES—but then YOU would not be satisfied—and WE would lose your trade.

Call at our place when in Greenville and we will be glad to show you through, whether you are ready to buy your SHOE BILL or not

PRIDE, PATTON & TILMAN

Greenville, S. C.

Rev. B. Holder, one of the most honored of Pickens county's citizens, has returned to Pickens after a ten-day visit to his daughter, Mrs. D. H. Davis, of Liberty. Mr. Holder is more than ninety years old, but gets around better than a great many people twenty and thirty years younger.

Son of Judge Watts Shot

John Watts, only son of Richard C. Watts, associate justice of the South Carolina Supreme court, was shot and seriously wounded early Thursday morning at Laurens. Young Watts had wandered into the yard of Eugene H. Wilkes and was mistaken by the latter for a thief. It was thought Watts was under the influence of whiskey at the time and was not cognizant of his actions. At first it was feared the wound would prove fatal, but it is now thought he will recover.

Adjourn Sine Die

Columbia, Nov. 3.—The extraordinary session of the legislature adjourned sine die at 1.30. Two measures will be effective as a result of the session. They are:

An act forbidding under penalty the planting in cotton by any person of more than one-third the area planted in all crops.

An act creating a state warehouse system.

"Encyclopedia Germanica" Comment

Of course the cotton mills can declare their regular dividends, payable Jan. 1, with cotton at half the price it was a year ago.

Of course newspaper men never own mill stock. If that were not a known fact the above paragraph would prove the editor of the Pickens Sentinel does not. And if he did have any, he would learn a few things about mill stocks if he attempted to sell. If there had been "regular dividends," there would not have been such a decline in the price of mill stocks, Greenville Piedmont.

"Worth More Than it Costs"

Lots of farmers declare their telephone service is worth more than it costs. J. W. Harris, a well-known farmer living near Choccolocco, Ala., writes:

"I had occasion to call our doctor not two hours after my telephone was connected with your exchange. My mother, who is very old, fell down the door steps and broke her arm, and I called the doctor. He was at my house before I could have gone to his residence, as he has an automobile.

"We would not be without our telephone for more than it costs and appreciate the assistance you rendered us."

Our free booklet tells how you may have telephone service on your farm at small cost. Write for it today. A postal will do.

Farm Machinery Again

We are talking again on this subject because we want to impress on your minds the fact that successful farmers have become so through the use of this same machinery, and what others can do you ought to do.

The earth is full of wealth waiting for some one to dig it out, but you will never pry it all loose with bare hands or the old time tools.

If you saw a dollar in the road you would pick it up. Our machinery means a good many dollars "picked up" for you. Better start your "picking" now.
